ONE-DAY TRIPS are Senior Trips.

Travelers need to belong to the Menands Senior Club or one of the other Town of Colonie Senior Clubs.

Please be sure to wear your lanyard. Your lanyard should contain your current membership card, emergency/medical information and your vaccination card can also fit.

Tour Leaders are not trained for medical mishaps. Bring your cane, walker, oxygen or any other device you know how to operate without supervision. Feel comfortable and safe as possible.

OVERNIGHT TRIPS, are not subsidized by the Village or The Town. Therefore, any responsible, courteous adult over 21 years of age is welcome.

However, you must wear the lanyard provided and follow all other medical/safety procedures.

Questions: Call or Email, Diane Leonard, 518-465-3771, diwewe@yahoo.com.

TRIP CANCELLATIONS, when you cancel a trip for any reason, and the trip is not finalized, we will refund your money. After we have finalized the reservation and made the final payment, we can no longer give a refund.

You can sell your ticket to someone on the waiting list or any other interested member.

TRAVELER'S INSURANCE, is available for multi-day trips. For a nominal fee you are able to receive a full refund, in case of cancellation.
